

Kenneth Wagner – Volunteer of the Year

Kenneth Wagner of El Dorado was elected as the 2009 Volunteer of the Year for the El Dorado Chamber of Commerce. He and spouse, Helen, are charter members of the El Dorado Senior Ambassadors, a volunteer group of the Chamber. The committee was formed in the mid-1980's. He has been the chairperson of the committee since 2005.

Kenneth has spent thousands of hours doing volunteer work for the Prairie Port Festival, Governor's One Shot Turkey Hunt, United Way, Frontier Western Celebration, Salvation Army Bell Ringing, and delivery of membership packet and other things as needed for the Chamber. He also helps set up for Red Cross Blood Drives and serves as Lifeline contact for a 101 year old neighbor lady. He is also an active member of Butler County Association of Retired School Personnel. Volunteering has always been and continues to be a way of life for the Wagners.
