

Survival Concerns Outweigh Fashion Concerns.

Hunter Education Instructor Larry Weast puts a bright orange wind-breaker on Colin Wisdom, 13, while demonstrating articles found in a survival kit.

Larry Weast, a member of Brown County Retired School Personnel stays busy volunteering. Besides teaching hunting safety rules and regulations, students in his classes also teaches students about survival kits. He is also the Area Coordinator for Hunter Education Classes for the Department of Wild Life and Parks, Youth Coordinator for Quail Unlimited, their Youth Shoot, and the Scholarship Program. Brown County Retired School Personnel and the youth of his area greatly appreciate his time and talents.

Information provided by Jo Ann Clum of Brown County Retired School Personnel.
Photo by Candy Johansen / Hiawatha World newspaper.